

INTERREG V A Italy – Croatia CBC Programme

SO 4.1 “Improve the quality, safety and environmental sustainability of marine and coastal transport services and nodes by promoting multimodality in the programme area”

GUTTA project -opening conference- agenda

date: March, 6th 2019

venue: hotel Risorgimento, via A. Imperatore 19, Lecce - Italy

<https://www.cmcc.it/projects/gutta-saving-fuel-and-emissions-from-maritime-transport-in-the-adriatic-region>

Wednesday, 6 March 2019

Title	Towards a sustainable Adriatic transportation
	Scope of the public conference is to provide a broader framework into which GUTTA project activities will be placed and to establish links with other European Projects
8:30 - 9:00	Registration
9:00	Introduction and chair Paola Agostini (CMCC, Lecce – IT)
9:05	Institutional greetings Stefano Minerva (President of the Province of Lecce - IT)
9:10	Apulia, Dalmatia, and the Adriatic Sea as a shared History Egidio Ivetic (University of Padua - IT)
9:40	Impacts of anthropogenic climate change in Europe Enrico Scoccimarro (CMCC, Bologna - IT)
10:10	The Copernicus Marine Environment Monitoring Service Giovanni Coppini (CMCC, Lecce - IT)
10:40	Coffee Break
11:10	Underwater noise and marine mammals in the Adriatic Sea: the SOUNDSCAPE project Nikolina Rako (Blue World Institute, Veli Lošinj – HR)
11:40	The European Maritime Safety Agency and the MRV Regulation (EU 757/2015) Miguel Madeira (EMSA, Lisbon - PT)
12:10	Sea Traffic Management as a tool for emissions savings Ulf Svedberg (Swedish Maritime Administration - SE)
12:40	VISIR and sustainable maritime transportation Gianandrea Mannarini (CMCC, Lecce - IT)
13:10	Concluding remarks Giovanni Indiveri (University of Salento- IT)